Value

This scholarship provides a single gateway for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students to apply for all scholarships currently on offer at Curtin.

There are many scholarships available in 2022 - some provide one-off payments, others provide support for the expected duration of the recipient's degree. Once you apply and are assessed for eligibility, then the Scholarships Office can advise you on the specific value of a scholarship.

Payment may be pro-rata based on enrolment.

Scholarship Details

Eligible courses

All enabling courses, undergraduate and postgraduate degrees

Eligibility criteria

Applicants must meet the following criteria to be eligible to apply through the Indigenous Scholarships Program:

- Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent

Other eligibility criteria will vary according to the scholarship. The Scholarships Team will assess you and match you to a potential scholarship if possible, then advise you regarding eligibility. Usually if you are successful in more than one scholarship, then you will be awarded the highest value scholarship. You may have the opportunity to select your preferred scholarship.

Enrolment requirements

Requirements vary for each scholarship. If you are eligible for a particular scholarship, the Scholarships Team will direct you to the Enrolment requirements for that particular scholarship.
